

Women's Wednesdays with Rabbi Katie Bauman

The Blessing of a Skinned Knee

Beginning Wednesday, January 6, 1-2 pm

We will read and reflect on child psychologist Wendy Mogel's acclaimed book, The Blessing of a Skinned Knee: Using Jewish Teachings to Raise Self-Reliant Children.

This short and powerful read offers guideposts for the challenge of parenting and a blueprint for a new spiritual approach to our lives. We will take this special hour to learn and share as women, using Mogel's book as a frame- work for our discussion.

January 6	Chapters 1 and 2
January 13	Chapter 3
January 20	Chapters 4 and 5
January 27	Chapter 6

The book is available for purchase for $15 in the Barbara K. Lipman Early Learning Center and in the Judaica Shop.

Please contact me at rabbikatie@timemphis.org, if you have any questions. I hope to see you there!
