

Daniel Pearl

“Harmony for Humanity” Concert

Sunday,
October 23, 2011
2:00 p.m.
UC Theater at the University of Memphis

Co-sponsored by Morris S. Fogelman
Jewish Student Center at Hillel of Memphis, Pearl BBG and Facing History & Ourselves

Morris S. Fogelman Jewish Student Center at Hillel of Memphis, Pearl BBG & Facing History and Ourselves invite the community to the Daniel Pearl “Harmony for Humanity” Concert 2011, showcasing our very own talented students, professors, and community members.

This year’s concert will feature returning and new performances including a original piece written especially for our concert.

Pearl BBG is pleased to announce that JIM BOYD, president of BRIDGES, will be the first recipient of which will be given annually to a local community person who has used his/her talents and skills to foster tolerance, build bridges and promote friendship and understanding, reflecting the legacy of Daniel Pearl. BRIDGES programs serve 15,000 adults and youth in the Memphis area annually, to build a community of leaders to advance racial, economic, educational and environmental justice.

“Daniel Pearl Legacy Award”

Daniel Pearl
WORLD MUSIC DAYS

The concert is free & open to all.
For more information, contact Hillel of Memphis at 901.452.2453 or e-mail at hillelofmemphis@bellsouth.net