

Frequently Asked Questions

When is the Temple a Go-Go?

Saturday, January 28, 2012; 6:30pm

Where is the Go-Go?

Temple Israel, 1376 E. Massey Road, Memphis, TN 38120

What should I wear?

Dressy casual (60's style dress optional)

What is the entertainment?

A live DJ, Kenny Bosak, will be playing a variety of music from across all decades, starting with the 60's.

What are the Go-Go auctions?

The auctions will include both silent and live bidding opportunities. The silent auction will include items from restaurants, vacation spots, artists and jewelers, a variety of retail stores, other culinary experiences, and sports events. Surprises are in store for the live auction. Come and get caught up in the excitement of the live auction! You never know what may happen or where you may jet off to.

How much are tickets?

Tickets are $60 per person before January 15, 2012, and they are $75 after. Tickets make great Chanukah presents.

What does my ticket include?

Dancing and music provided by the DJ, access to the silent and live auction, drinks, and food.

Why have the event?

This is an opportunity to bring the Temple community together to have fun and to participate in a fundraiser to benefit Temple Israel. This is the second Go-Go; the last was in November of 2009.

What will the proceeds of the event support?

Due to the growing needs of our diverse membership, additional funds are required beyond the commitments provided by our members. Proceeds from this event will ensure that vital services will be available for all members, regardless of their ability to pay.

How many people do you expect to attend this event?

Approximately 700 people attended the first Go-Go, and we hope to attract a similar amount of attendees at this event.
