1. Go-Go to the Beach!

Whether a girls' getaway, a guys' golf trip, or family fun, this gorgeous beachfront home located on 30A between Seaside and Rosemary Beach, Florida provides the perfect vacation. Available for one week, Bonne Terre Villa I (which is the first-floor) sleeps 10 comfortably with four bedrooms, four baths, and a bunkroom. The professionally decorated home features extensive mosaic tile work, a state-of-the-art kitchen, private pool (can be heated for a fee), beach walkway, and 14 plasma TVs! Bidding will begin at $3,000. The donor also requires an additional refundable damage deposit of $500 and additional housekeeping fee of $225. Use is for a mutually agreed upon week between November 21, 2009 and March 13, 2010 with a Saturday check-in and check-out.

2. Muffins with the Mayor

Mayor AC Wharton is taking time out from running Memphis to be your child's special guest! Mayor Wharton will bring muffins to your child's classroom to share with the children as he spends 30 minutes visiting and answering questions. What a great way for your child to show off his or her political connections! Date and time to be mutually agreed upon.

3. You Know You Love It. XOXO...Gossip Girl

Hey East Memphis! Look for me and the most infamous Upper Eastsiders in action and up close. One Queen B and chaperone/guest will visit the set of Gossip Girl in New York City during filming for the 2009-2010 season. Exact date to be agreed upon by Warner Brothers. And don't leave empty handed, the package includes a signed poster and signed script. You know how I love a scandal, but avoid any bumps by reviewing the Warner Brothers restrictions & requirements at the Live Auction display. XOXO Gossip Girl.

4. Go Tigers Go!

Are you a Memphis fan or do you bleed orange? It doesn't matter as long as you have two courtside, front-row seats at the Memphis/University of Tennessee game on December 31, 2009; tip-off is at 3:00 p.m. and a parking pass at FedEx Forum is included. But that's not all – to round out the package, Coach Josh Pastner will host TWO lucky fans at a Tiger practice where you'll take a picture with the team and be presented a signed basketball.

5. Come Late, Park Great

That's right, it's what you've always wanted – a reserved parking spot for the High Holy Days! You'll have your own marked spot for all Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur services at Temple in 2010. So don't worry about getting to Temple an hour early so you can drop off Aunt Sally and Grandpa and still have time to park the car and find a seat before the shofar sounds – bid high and bid often, and you'll be parking right in front!

6. Be a Star on iCarly

There's no chance unless you take one...Sam, Freddie, Spencer & Carly are waiting for one of Temple Israel's finest to steal the show! You'll be a hero when your child gets to appear in an episode of the TV hit, iCarly. You'll be a superhero when your child actually has a speaking line on the show! And the fun doesn't stop there...this lucky kid will experience a V.I.P. set visit to iCarly in Los Angeles, California, including a private tour of Nick on Sunset, the television studio where iCarly is produced; the opportunity to watch part of an episode being rehearsed and/or filmed; and the once-in-a-lifetime chance to meet the stars of the show, talk to them, and have pictures taken with them. A dream-come-true for the special child in your life.

7. Vino a Go-Go

Indulge in outstanding wines and cuisine of the French Bordeaux and Italian Tuscany regions on this incredible wine-tasting experience in two exquisite, private wine cellars. Six oenophiles (or oenophile-wanna-bes) will be picked up at their homes and chauffeured to the Orgel wine cellar where the following French wines will be served:

- a 1996 Chateau Pichon-Longueville Baron Bordeaux (with a Wine Spectator score of 90)
- a 1999 Chateau Latour Bordeaux (score of 93)
- a 2000 Chateau Pavie Bordeaux (score of 96)

You'll then be driven to the Robinson wine room for an Italian tasting of:

- a 2004 Ornellaia (score of 97)
- a 2004 Solaia (score of 96)
- a 2004 Masseto (score of 98)

With the wines alone valued at more than $2,000, six lucky wine and food aficionados will enjoy an evening they'll never forget. And, of course, a ride home will be provided!

8. Sheriff for a Day

For the very first time, Sheriff Mark Luttrell is giving up his badge to one lucky boy or girl when he or she becomes Sheriff for a Day. A parent will bring their child with two to three friends to visit with Sheriff Luttrell (even see the Sheriff's lunchroom!), learn what it takes to be a sheriff, have pictures taken, and the best part...ride in a squad car! Learn what it's like to be on the right side of the law with this kid-friendly, real-life experience. Time and day to be agreed upon by all parties.

9. Sex and the City

Watch out Carrie, Samantha, Charlotte, and Miranda -- Temple's own fabulous foursome will be descending upon Manhattan for Fashion Week 2010! This fun-filled package includes four tickets to the Jason Wu and Tuleh runway shows; four tickets to the exciting new Broadway show "Memphis;" four $250 Joseph gift certificates; and four make-overs at Joseph before leaving for the Big Apple -- who knows, you may run into Mr. Big! The runway shows are February 12 & 14; exact dates of the trip to be confirmed. Air included! Come on, girls -- get out your four-inch Manolos and kick up the bids for this trip -- you're worth the big bucks!
