FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

8/16/11

Congratulations to Sarah Arnold and Jacob Fijman on being selected the 2011 Counselors of the Year at Henry S. Jacobs Camp.

Sarah is the daughter of Valerie and Thomas Arnold of Memphis, TN. She is a 2011 graduate of St. Mary's Episcopal School in Memphis and an entering freshman at Ohio State University. Her peers shared the following about Sarah: "She consistently gives 100%. Her energy is limitless and is always on her game. Sarah is tough, confident, creative, goofy, fair, responsible, and caring. She is just a fabulous counselor; I learned so much just by watching her do her job." Sarah was completely surprised when her name was announced, "Everyone did an incredible job as counselors, and it meant a lot to be selected. I love that Jacobs Camp encourages kids to be free, to be silly and to be themselves, and not to worry about what others think."

Jacob is the son of Susan and Mark Fijman of Madison, MS. He is a 2011 graduate of St. Andrew's Episcopal School in Ridgeland, MS and an entering freshman of Louisiana State University. Jacob's peers shared the following about him: "He handles all stressful situations calmly and maintains his energy no matter what tasks are on his plate. Jacob constantly looks for ways to improve, every day; he strives to be a better staff member. He puts his whole self into making sure his campers have the summer of their lives." Jacobs was pleased to be recognized, "It is really nice to be acknowledged by the entire staff. It means a lot to me. I think it is important to help kids make friends that they will have for a lifetime."

Jacob and Sarah met when they were in Garin at HSJ and have been friends ever since. They were pleased to share the honor together.
