

KEEP KIDS SAFE

COMMUNITY WIDE FORUM

ON CHILD SAFETY

Sunday, November 20, 2011
10:00-11:30 am
MJCC Belz Social Hall

Keynote and break-out sessions with experts from the Child Advocacy Center, Exchange Club Family Center, and local and federal law enforcement geared to parents of pre-school through high school-age children.

Kid's activities and babysitting for children ages 1-8

- Do you know how to talk to your child about potential dangers?
- What is the appropriate response to a "stranger" from within the Jewish community?
- Would your child go somewhere with an acquaintance from synagogue or the soccer field?
- Is your child a potential victim of a cyber-bully or online predator?
- What dangers do your teens face on high school and college campuses?

Convened by Memphis Jewish Federation and PJ Library of Memphis and co-sponsored by Anshei Sphard-Beth El Emeth Congregation, Baron Hirsch Congregation, BBYO, Beth Sholom Congregation, Bornblum Solomon Schechter School, Chabad Lubavitch, Fogelman Hillel of Memphis, Jewish Family Service, Margolin Hebrew Academy/Feinstone Yeshiva of the South, Memphis Hadassah, Memphis Jewish Community Center, NCSY, Or Chadash New Conservative Synagogue, Temple Israel and Young Israel Congregation.
