NEW EXHIBITION IN THE TEMPLE MUSEUM

Open now until August 22

Flight: Chagall, Miró, and the Plight of the Refugees

On loan from Josh and Joanna Lipman, this amazing collection of lithographs by 20th century masters represents their interpretation of the struggle of those who fled their homes in search of freedom.

Artists include Eugene Berman, Alexander
Calder, Marc Chagall, Jacques Lipchitz, André Masson, Joan Miró, and more.

Go to www.timemphis.org for more details.

THE POWER OF REDUCED POWER

This Saturday, March 27, from 8:30-9:30pm

Temple's Environmental Task Force continues to encourage Temple members and friends to be good stewards of Earth's resources. By taking advantage of Earth Hour (turn off as much electricity as possible), this Saturday night from 8:30-9:30 pm you too can show the world how important conservation is to our planet!
