

Speakers and Artists in Residence
Marcus J Freed, British Actor and Yogi
Dec. 5, 2010; Jan. 30, 2011; Feb. 27, 2011
See below for specific times and event information
Sponsored by the Berz-Stern Fund

Our distinguished featured guests bring a wide array of experiences, talent, and knowledge to the table. We hope you enjoy these experts in their respective fields.

Temple is proud to bring to Memphis Marcus J Freed, world renowned Jewish actor, educator, and yogi, to present three hilarious biblical comedies for adults; to teach Bibliyoga, a powerful form of yoga that is infused with Jewish wisdom; and to lead interactive, drama-based Biblical learning sessions for religious school students.

Freed has taught Bibliyoga in 20 countries and inspires thousands weekly with his Kosher Sutras. The Bibliyoga sessions combine yogic postures and flowing movements (asana and vinyasa) while integrating powerful thoughts from the best rabbinic and Kabbalistic masters. It is open to men and women at all levels of yoga.

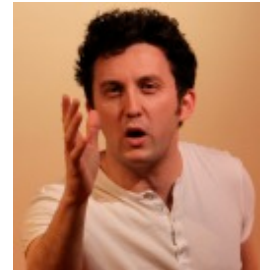

Sunday, December 5, 2010

9:30 A.M. Bibliyoga

5:00 P.M. Solomon: King, Poet, & Lover—The Story of One Man and 700 Wives

He built the first Temple in Jerusalem, wrote three books of the Bible, married 700 wives, but who is King Solomon? This raucous rollercoaster of a play combines Shakespearean parody with comic irreverence and deep Biblical wisdom. It's hilarious, moving, and thought provoking.

Sunday, January 30, 2011

9:30 A.M. Bibliyoga

5:00 P.M. Elijah: First Action Hero

The land was full of idolatry and ritual prostitution. Once man came to spoil the fun – Elijah, first action hero. Elijah is a one-man uproarious play that takes you on a madcap journey through the court of the lusty Queen Jezebel, flaccid King Ahab, and the finest idol worshipping shrines in ancient Israel.

Sunday, February 27, 2011

9:15 A.M. Bibliyoga (note: at Better Bodies Yoga, 692 W. Brookhaven Circle)

5:00 P.M. King David's Greatest Hits—A Tale of Swords, Slingshots, and Married Women

Take a wild journey through the world of Israel's greatest king! He writes Psalms, fights Philistines, unifies a nation, establishes Jerusalem, and is the all-original Biblical hero. This musical adventure covers all of King David's complex life, telling the story through pop music, rock 'n roll, ballads, breakdancing, and swing.