Narrated by Joan Allen, Blessed Is the Match is an award-winning documentary feature about Hannah Senesh, the World War II-era poet and diarist who became a paratrooper, resistance fighter, and modern-day Joan of Arc. In 1944, as part of the only military rescue mission for Jews during the Holocaust, Hannah parachuted behind enemy lines, was captured, tortured, and ultimately executed by the Nazis. Incredibly, her mother Catherine witnessed the entire ordeal—first as a prisoner with Hannah and later as her advocate, braving the bombed-out streets of Budapest in a desperate attempt to save her daughter. We'll watch the film and have a brief discussion led by Sally Rosenberg.

Sally Rosenberg, former trustee of Temple Israel, is a foreign language teacher at St. Mary's Episcopal School and well-known lay leader of women's study at Temple.

What a concept! Temple Tuesdays is a brand new learning series offering a myriad of opportunities for intellectual, spiritual, and social connections to Temple and our members. Meet at Temple the second Tuesday of each month, and choose between several stimulating and diverse lectures, discussions, and workshops. After an hour of learning something new, enjoy coffee, desserts, and schmoozing. Bring your friends and make new friends! Temple Tuesdays is where it's happening.

Enjoy coffee and dessert from 8-9 P.M.
