

TEMPLE ISRAEL INVITES YOU TO
TEMPLE TUESDAYS

Temple Tuesdays is a learning series that offers opportunities for intellectual, spiritual, and social connections. Choose one of the stimulating and diverse presentations and then stay for coffee and dessert. Bring your friends and make new ones!

TUESDAY, JANUARY 11, 7:00 P.M.
TEMPLE ISRAEL

A Culinary History of Jews in America

Presented by Seth Front

In this humorous and entertaining multimedia presentation, Jewish Zodiac® creator Seth Front tells the history of Jews in America via the deli: from its origins on the Lower East Side at the turn of the 20th century, its adaptation to American tastes, its assimilation into mainstream American culture, and its challenge for survival in the 21st century. Seth Front is a comedy writer, screenwriter, and entrepreneur from Los Angeles who uses humor to connect with his audience. This program is a huge, fun platter of Jewish cultural history with a side order of nostalgia.

Jews and Comics

Presented by Rabbi Adam Grossman & Eddy Zeno

By looking through the art, writing, and history of comic book artists, this presentation will analyze the seminally important role Jews played in the industry's development, as well as the way in which Jewish comic book artists utilized the comic book to address identity issues facing American Jewry over the last two-thirds of the twentieth century.

Have a Little Faith

Presented by Rabbi Katie Bauman

Mitch Albom's book, Have a Little Faith, chronicles his relationship with two men of God, one Jewish and one Christian. Albom and his two mentors ask questions that lie at the heart of religion in the modern world: the meaning of suffering, heaven, paths to forgiveness, God's interaction with humanity, and the importance of faith in our everyday lives. We will discuss Albom's book and the many relevant issues it raises as they apply to our own experiences as Jews and human beings.