

Temple Tuesdays: Memphis Music Mensches
Presented by David Fleischman, Randy Haspel, George Klein
Tuesday, March 8, 2011
7:00-8:00 P.M. (coffee and desserts follow)
Temple Israel, 1376 E. Massey Road, Memphis

Come hear the story of three Jewish men who created the sound track for many of us who grew up in Memphis. Relive those memories and hear the story of how it all began and where they are today.

David Fleischman was the lead singer for the Flash and the Memphis Casuals and the Board of Directors from 1967-1973. In 1974 he became a record executive and works in the music industry today.

Randy Haspel is the founder and lead singer of Randy and the Radiants who recorded for Sun Records. He currently writes a blog for the Memphis Flyer called "The Rant."

George Klein - "G.K."- is a legendary disc jockey who broadcast on WHBQ radio in the sixties. He also had a weekly TV show called Talent Party. He is currently a host on Memphis Sounds TV show and a disc jockey on Sirius satellite Elvis Channel. He recently released his book Elvis: My Best Man.

Temple Tuesdays is a learning series that provides opportunities for intellectual, spiritual, and social connections to Temple Israel.
