

TEMPLE ISRAEL INVITES YOU TO TEMPLE TUESDAYS

TUESDAY, MARCH 8, 7:00 P.M.

Temple Tuesdays is a learning series that offers opportunities for intellectual, spiritual, and social connections. Choose one of the stimulating and diverse presentations and then stay for coffee and dessert. Bring your friends and make new ones!

Cooking for Passover Can Be Fun!

Presented by

Toba Kornberg, Margaret Fargotstein, Ida Houston

Cooking for Passover is a blast if you're cooking with these fabulous and entertaining cooks! This cooking demonstration's menu includes chopped liver for an appetizer, Farfeloni (a substitute for spaghetti) for a main course, and pecan pie bars for dessert. You will not believe these three dishes are kosher for Passover!

Memphis Music Mensches

Presented by

David Fleischman, Randy Haspel, George Klein

Come hear the story of three Jewish men who created the sound track for many of us who grew up in Memphis. Relive those memories and hear the story of how it all began and where they are today.

From the Table of Rashi and Rambam to a Fast Food Nation-Nutrition for a New Age

Presented by Lenore S. Greenstein

Lenore S. Greenstein is a nutritionist, lecturer, counselor, educator, and award-winning journalist. She is a Registered Dietician with a Masters in Nutrition Education. Lenore is also the mother of Micah Greenstein, Senior Rabbi at Temple Israel. In her presentation, she will show us how Jewish texts can guide us nutritionally.

IBM and the Holocaust

Presented by Mark Gillenson

Mark Gillenson holds a PhD in Computer and Information Science and is a Professor of Management Information Systems. With his unique experience, training, and perspective, Mark, a former 15-year employee of IBM, will give a presentation based on Edwin Black's award-winning book, IBM and the Holocaust.

Scan the QR code to view a gallery of pictures.

The photos are posted at www.facebook.com/TempleIsrael