

HIGH HOLY DAYS

SELICHOT

Saturday, September 24

Refreshments at 10 pm, Service at 10:30 pm

Prepare for the High Holy Days at this reflective service.

ROSH HASHANAH SERVICES

Wednesday, September 28, 6:15 pm* and 8:45 pm*

Rabbi Micah Greenstein will speak on

“The Four-Letter Word Jews Need to Say More Often”

Important note: The parking lot will not be cleared from the 6:15 pm service until 8:15 pm.

Thursday, September 29

Rosh Hashanah Morning Service, 10 am*

Rabbi Katie Bauman will speak on “Other People’s Prayers”

Babies born to Temple members since last Rosh Hashanah (between Sept. 4, 2010 and Sept. 27, 2011) will be honored at this year’s service.

Call Carol Geller in the Rabbis’ office at 937-2771.

Grades 3-5 and Grades 6-7, 10 am

followed by activities and youth-only refreshments at noon

Teen Service (Grades 8-12), 10 am

led by the Teen Team and members of MeFTY

youth-only refreshments at noon

Children’s Services, 3 pm

Tots (Kindergarten and under) and Young Readers (Grades 1-2)

MEMORIAL SERVICE

Sunday, October 2, 10:30 am

Levy-Cooper Chapel, Temple Israel Cemetery, 1708 Hernando Road

Honor a loved one, whether or not they are interred at our cemetery, by attending this service.

TASHLICH

Sunday, October 2, 11:45 am

“Tashlich” or “the casting off (of sins)” is a high holy day custom (based on Psalm 118:5 and Micah 7:19) in which we symbolically cast our sins away, either into a body of water or in another fashion. Come to Temple for our creative Tashlich experience, followed by lunch in the courtyard, courtesy of MRJ-Brotherhood.

HIGH HOLY DAYS CHILD CARE

High Holy Days child care is generously underwritten by WRJ-Temple Israel Sisterhood. It is offered to our congregational family for children 18 months through 2nd grade. Register at timemphis.org. Deadlines: Rosh Hashanah-Sept. 21 and Yom Kippur-Sept. 30.

ROSH HASHANAH APPLE CAKES

MeFTY is selling kosher apple cakes from Ricki’s Cookie Corner. Order, by September 16, your specially wrapped cakes ($10 each) to be picked up at Temple (Tuesday, Sept. 27, 3-6 pm), by going to timemphis.org or calling the MeFTY office, 937-2777.

YOM KIPPUR SERVICES

Kol Nidre Services

Friday, October 7, 6:15 pm* and 8:45 pm*

Rabbi Micah Greenstein will speak on “The Religious Among Us”

Important note: The parking lot will not be cleared from the 6:15 pm service until 8:15 pm.

Saturday, October 8

Stay all day!

Yom Kippur Morning Service, 10 am*

Rabbi Adam Grossman will speak on “The Mystery of Faith”

Grades 3-5 and Grades 6-7, 10 am

followed by activities

Teen Service (Grades 8-12), 10 am

led by the Teen Team and members of MeFTY

Discussion Groups with Clergy, noon

Ruach Service, 1:30 pm*

The Temple Israel High School Class of 2012 will be honored.

Discussion Group with Dr. Joe Levy, 1:30 pm

Renewal Service with Cantor Kaplan, 3 pm

Discussion Group with Leo Bearman, 3 pm

Children’s Services, 3 pm

Tots (Kindergarten and under) and Young Readers (Grades 1-2)

Yizkor (Memorial) Service, 4 pm*

Afternoon Service, 4:30 pm*

Neilah Service, 6 pm*

Tekiah Gedolah, 6:30 pm*

Break Fast, Sponsored by WRJ-Sisterhood

* To listen to this service over the telephone, dial (901) 507-8000 and, when prompted, enter the conference id 90654, followed by the # sign.

* This service will also be shown live at timemphis.org.

IMPORTANT NOTES

- * Please refer to page 8 for a word about our High Holy Days Food Drive.
- * The parking lot will not be cleared from the 6:15 pm service until 8:15 pm on September 28 and October 7.
- * If you are unable to drive to services and would like a ride, WRJ-Sisterhood is providing vouchers from Shalom Taxi. Contact Phyllis Niegelberg, jniegelb@comcast.net or 758-0427.
- * If you have not received your High Holy Days tickets, please contact Jeff Manis, 937-2761 or jeffm@timemphis.org.
- * Sign up at timemphis.org to be an usher at select services.