For the month of February
Passover is the oldest continually observed holiday in the world. This month, when we sit around a table and retell the story of our people’s journey out of slavery, we are links in a chain that is among the longest in history. What is so special about Passover that it has inspired this kind of commitment? I think there are two primary reasons: 1) the story we tell and 2) the way we tell it.

The story we tell... is a really good story. The Exodus from Egypt is foundational to who we are as Jews. It is from this story that our relationship with God flows. We were taken for worthless, and then God redeemed us and we became an am segulah, a treasured people. This story is also foundational to who we are as human beings. How many times have we felt trapped and then found that waters parted and we could pass through into a new kind of existence? This experience happens to everyone, so the story is a metaphor for our constant trials, as well as a historical record of a one-time occurrence.

The way we tell it... is in a really good way. Questions, songs, games, symbols, body movements - every kind of teaching and learning is exemplified during a Seder. It is the best possible classroom, where we hear this story at the feet of our parents and by the sides of our friends. The emotion that is attached to this kind of storytelling runs so deep that it is inextricable from our identity as we age.

Passover can be a return to the past, a spiritual renewal, and a moral awakening all at the same time. It can engage the very young and the very old. It can feed our souls as much as it does our bodies. And applying our creative energy to this holiday is an essential part of the experience. Because of its incredible combination of fluidity and substance, Passover will continue to be not only relevant, but meaningful. Each Seder table becomes part of our legacy and our destiny.

Looking forward to celebrating with you at Temple’s many Passover events!

“Passover can be a return to the past, a spiritual renewal, and a moral awakening all at the same time.”

TORAH STUDY
Shabbat mornings, 8:45 am - 9:45 am

SHABBAT LEARNERS’ MINYAN
Saturdays, April 1 and April 15, 10:00 am
Participate in a traditional Shabbat morning service in a relaxed, intimate setting. Explore the meaning of the prayers and how the service developed; discuss the weekly Torah reading; learn traditional and contemporary melodies, and understand how to build your own Jewish prayer kit. The ability to read Hebrew is not necessary.

B’NAI MITZVAH
Saturday, April 8, 10:00 am
Seth Gibson, son of Lisa Menuskin & Neil Gibson, will become a Bar Mitzvah.

Saturday, April 22, 10:00 am
Marcus Cohn, son of Lauren & Allen Cohn, will become a Bar Mitzvah.

Saturday, April 29, 10:00 am
Shea Kiersky, daughter of Tricia & Elliot Kiersky, will become a Bat Mitzvah.

PRENEGS APPRECIATION
Jennifer & Michael Ross and Liz & Ken Atterman sponsored the preneg on February 24 in honor of the naming of their son and grandson, Evan Harrison Ross.

Debbie & Ron Jackson sponsored the preneg on March 24 in honor of the engagement of Russell Jackson to Sarah Phifer and the engagement of Brad Jackson to Olivia Young.

Judy & Jim Stephenson will sponsor the preneg on April 7 in honor of the Aronson family from Westport, Washington and the Burns family from San Mateo, California.

WANT TO SPONSOR A PRENEG?
If you would like to sponsor a preneg before a Friday night Shabbat service, please call Sharon Nickol, 901.937.2797.
Mazel Tov!

Congratulations to these blessings who are becoming B’nai Mitzvah in April.

Seth Gibson
Son of Lisa Menuskin & Neil Gibson, Seth will become a Bar Mitzvah on April 8. A seventh grader at Lausanne Collegiate School, Seth’s Mitzvah Project focuses on fighting hunger. During a school service project, he packed food for at-risk children and learned that there are children who go hungry every day. He became inspired to help make a difference and plans to donate his time and a portion of his Bar Mitzvah gift money to the Mid-South Food Bank to support programs focused on kids. Additionally, Seth is volunteering with the Food for Kids BackPack Program, which provides a backpack filled with nutritious, child-friendly food for children to take home for the weekend. Seth also volunteered his time to pack meals with Stop Hunger Now for children and families in Haiti. Seth is the grandson of Vicki & Gary Gibson and Marcia & Jay Menuskin.

Marcus Cohn
Son of Lauren & Allen Cohn, Marcus will become a Bar Mitzvah on April 22. Marcus is in seventh grade at Lausanne Collegiate School. For his Mitzvah Project, Marcus volunteered for the Streetdog Foundation, where he walked homeless dogs waiting to be fostered, participated in adopt-a-thons, and made homemade dog treats for foster animals. Marcus was inspired by his family’s rescue pitbull named Grizzly. He is the grandson of Sandra & David Halpern, JoAnne Halpern, and Suzanne & William Cohn, both of blessed memory.

Shea Kiersky
Daughter of Tricia & Elliot Kiersky, Shea will become a Bat Mitzvah on April 29. Shea is a seventh grader at St. Mary’s Episcopal School. Her Mitzvah Project includes volunteering at Southern Reins, an agency that serves individuals with cognitive, physical, and emotional disabilities by providing equine therapy/therapeutic riding to help empower participants to succeed. Shea is the granddaughter of Nancy & Jerry Ballin and Yvonne & Glenn Kiersky.

Other Lifecycle Events
Cara Greenstein and Alex Shindler on their marriage.

Have a Mazel Tov?
If you have a lifecycle “Mazel Tov” in your family that you would like to share, call Carol Geller in the Rabbis’ office: 901.937.2771.

Judaism in an Hour Series:

Introduction to Judaism for All Learners

The Counting of the Omer, the Jewish act of counting the 49-day period from the second day of Passover to Shavuot, is a time of contemplation and anticipation. It offers a perfect time to deepen our relationship to the Torah and Judaism; to learn more about ourselves and our neighbors, and to strengthen our community through learning. During the Counting of the Omer, explore several interesting and fun Jewish concepts with Temple clergy—either as an introduction to Judaism or as a refresher course.

FRIDAY, APRIL 28, 5:15 PM

Celebrate Temple Israel’s 163rd year, beginning with the Annual Meeting that will elect new Trustees and present the 2017-2018 budget. Following the meeting will be a Shabbat service featuring guest speaker, Tom Shadyac, renowned Hollywood director, author, and radio host. The evening will conclude with a Shabbat dinner.

New and returning Temple Israel Trustees are as follows: Raymond Evans, Jeff Kerlan, Billie Pierce, Esther Saltzman, and Elissa Taub (serving second year of Term 2, 2016-2018); Marisa Baggett and Lisa Barden (serving first year of Term 2, 2017-2019); Julie Boshwit, Bob Eiseman, Bruce Landau, Tony Lin, Leigh Royal, Liz Rudnick, Jason Salomon, and Patti Weiss (serving second year of Term 1, 2016-2018); and Michael Dragutsky, Rhonda Feiler, Sheila Hahn, Charles Jalenak, Janet Brueck Lang, Benjamin Orgel, and Janice Ringel (serving first year of Term 1, 2017-2019).

JOIN IN THE FESTIVITIES!

The Shabbat dinner costs $18/person by April 21; $25/person after that date. Reserve at timemphis.org or by calling Temple Israel, 901.761.3130. Special thanks to WRJ-Sisterhood for providing desserts!

about TOM SHADYAC

Tom Shadyac is a Hollywood movie director whose blockbuster comedies (Ace Ventura: Pet Detective, The Nutty Professor, Liar Liar, Patch Adams, Bruce Almighty...) have grossed just under 2 billion dollars at the box office. In 2011, after a near death experience, Tom turned the camera on himself in the thought-provoking documentary, I AM, which asks two questions: what’s wrong with the world and what can we do about it. I AM won numerous awards and continues to inspire viewers throughout the world.

Tom also has a special passion for youth and has taught at numerous colleges and high schools including Pepperdine University, Santa Monica College, and the University of Colorado Boulder. He is currently Filmmaker in Residence at the University of Memphis and teaches weekly classes there as well as at LeMoyne-Owen College.

His first book, Life’s Operating Manual (Hay House, 2012), quickly became a New York Times bestseller. He has appeared on numerous national television shows, including Ellen, Oprah, Good Morning America, The View, and Real Time with Bill Maher, to name just a few.

Tom hosted a national radio show for SiriusXM (One Big Couch with Tom Shadyac) and currently supports a daily show broadcasting from the historic Soulsville in Memphis entitled Tell Me More with Tom Shadyac.
Join us on the second night of Passover as we debut our Musical Passover Seder. We will create an evening of meaning, music, and interactive learning.

Barbara K. Lipman Early Learning Center
Grandparents and Special Friends Breakfast and Shabbat

On Friday, February 24, the Barbara K. Lipman Early Learning Center hosted the kids’ grandparents and special friends for a morning of fun! The day started with breakfast in each child’s classroom - full of sweets and treats. Then, the kids and their visitors headed to the Danziger Chapel for a special Shabbat service. Thank you to everyone who attended!
Purim Carnival

On Sunday, March 5, this year’s Purim Carnival was a total blast! Wendy and Avron Fogelman Religious School 8th graders and MeFTY leaders organized and ran a fantastic event - raising money for Camp Dream Street, a camping program for children with physical disabilities. Thank you to everyone involved!

Barbara K. Lipman Early Learning Center Purim Carnival

On Wednesday, March 8, the Barbara K. Lipman Early Learning Center students dressed in their favorite Purim costumes and attended a Purim Carnival! They got to ‘fish’ for prizes, get their faces painted, make puppets, taste hamantashen, and more. Thanks to all the volunteers who made it possible!
Purimspiel: “Megillah of Rock”!

Another year, another fantastic Purimspiel! On Tuesday, March 7, “Megillah of Rock” had Spiel goers dancing, singing, and clapping to a wonderful performance. Special thanks to Liz Rudnick, director and creator, and to the super talented cast, crew, and musicians. And, thank you to WRJ-Sisterhood for making Purimspiel possible! If you missed it, check out the Temple Israel YouTube page to watch the full performance.
Purim Celebration and Megillah Reading

On Saturday, March 11, Purim festivities culminated with a celebration and interactive Megillah reading for all ages! With costumes, games, graggers, and more, the congregation had a terrific time celebrating the Book of Esther.

The Exceptional Foundation of West Tennessee organized a group to deliver Shalach Manot bags to Plough Towers on Thursday, March 9. It was a joyful afternoon for the folks delivering the bags and the recipients!

Remember When…

Rabbi Max Samfield’s family Haggadah serves as a memento from the early 1900s while emphasizing the timelessness of the Passover story. Note the handwritten names for each section of the story... some things never change!

See more interesting throwbacks in the Temple Israel Archives. Call 901.937.2779 or email tiarchives@timemphis.org for hours.
